

I am writing to express my opposition to the petition by SAVI Technologies to operate in the 70cm band. If allowed, it would render a large portion of the band essentially useless by Amateur Radio operators, degrading our ability to provide emergency communications.

Please deny this petition.

Thank you,

William Richards